Privacy Policy and Terms & Conditions

3asyR takes the security of your details very seriously and guarantees the safety of your personal data. We use industry standard encryption methods and malware scanning to identify security gaps and deter would-be hackers. Encryption turns your information into a special code that only 3asyR's secure network can unscramble.

When registering with our site and/or placing an order, you may be requested to provide us with the following information:

- full name
- email address
- country of residence
- card payment details

3asyR may use your personal information as follows:

- to process your payments
- to fulfill your order and administer your account
- to personalize your experience by sending you brochures, leaflets, catalogues and other promotional material for our products and services, in which you seem to be more interested
- to activate marketing communication, including newsletters, survey participation, competitions, etc.
- to follow up with you on the quality and consistency of the services provided (users' feedback, live chat, email, etc.)
- for both your protection and ours, when you log into your account, open a new account or place an order online, 3asyR will collect information from your computer, such as an IP address, software and plug-in information and screen resolution. This information shall be used to create a device fingerprint, which will enable us to carry out checks for fraud prevention purposes.

We endeavor to protect your personal information in accordance with the applicable regulations and in the following ways:

- when you place an order, we offer the use of a secure server; a secure server encrypts all of the information you input before it is sent to us, thus protecting your confidential data from unauthorised use
- we will not request information which is excessive for our purposes
- we will not use your information for purposes other than the ones set out above

- we will try, with your assistance, to keep any information we hold about you to date and accurate
- we follow strict security procedures in the storage and disclosure of information, which you have provided to us, in order to prevent unauthorised access and use. Our security procedures mean that we may occasionally request proof of identity before we are able to disclose information to you.

Safety of transactions

All transactions carried out through our website with respect to our products and services are processed through Braintree, our payment gateway, and are encrypted through Secure Socket Layer (SSL) technology.

Your purchase transaction data is stored only as long as is necessary to complete your purchase transaction and is deleted upon completion, ensuring the secure handling of credit card and payment information provided by you.

Braintree will only collect, use and disclose your information to the extent necessary to perform their services in the context of the services agreement concluded between 3asyR and Braintree.

For more information on the transaction policies implemented by Braintree, please visit their website to familiarize yourselves with their privacy policies.

Third-party services

Other than Braintree, we do not use and/or share information with any other third-party service provider.

Intellectual Property

3asyR are the operators of this website, and the contents of it are exclusively our property.

Our rights are protected by Irish, European, and International Intellectual Property laws, including those for the protection of copyrights, trademarks, and database rights. Misuse of this website may incur civil liability and attract criminal sanctions.

We grant you a limited, non-exclusive and revocable licence to access our website for the purposes of browsing our product offer(s), ordering goods or services from us or obtaining contact information for us.

Your licence to access our website does not extend to any commercial use of our website, or to any use of our website whatsoever which is for the benefit of any commercial entity other than us.

You are expressly not permitted to download any part of our site (other than by reason of automatic page caching), to amend or modify it or any part of it, to reproduce or copy, sell (including any resale), or otherwise exploit our website (or any part of it) for any purpose other than as set out above, nor are you permitted to frame our website or to link to any element of it other than the homepage.

You are permitted to link to our homepage, provided that the link is not misleading, false or derogatory, but you are expressly not permitted to use any of our logos or graphics either as or in connection with such a link.

All brand names, product and service names and titles and copyright used in this site are trademarks, trade names, service marks or copyright of 3asyR. No permission is given by 3asyR for the use of such brand names, product and service names and titles and copyright by any other person and such use may constitute an infringement of 3asyR's rights.
